

The Next Level of True Blue Performance

Introducing Restek's New Premium Inlet Liners

Our previous line of premium inlet liners has been discontinued and replaced with Topaz liners, which offer a dramatic increase in performance. We are confident you will come to trust Topaz liners for generating the best possible data.

Deactivation:

unbelievably low breakdown for low-level GC analyses.

Reproducibility:

unbeatable manufacturing controls and QC tests for superior reliability.

Productivity:

unparalleled cleanliness for maximized GC uptime and lab throughput.
